Matteri, Ann Charles L.
John

Ann--released from active duty, Feb.11/46

John,discharged,May 3/46

Charles,discharged from army, 6/12/46

Nurse Ensign

Jan 24 44

Ensign Ann Matteri (NC) is the daughter of Mrs. E. Rosselli, Rt. 3, Box 492. She was stationed at the Oak Knoll naval hospital in Oakland for over eight months but has received her orders and is serving overseas.

Ann Matteri July 25-1945

Lt. (J.G.) Ann Matteri, (N. C.) has returned from a tour of duty overseas. She was stationed at a large hospital in the Hawaiian Islands and states that she enjoyed her duty and stay in the islands. Before leaving, she visited with her brother, John A. Matteri, U. S. N., who is there at present. Ann flew back recently, and is now enjoying a thirty day leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Roselli, of Lakeville. Her next station is St. Albans, New York, and she will report there after the expiration of her leave.

Ann Matteri 2/11/46

Lieutenant Anna Matteri, of Petaluma, was recently retired from active service with the navy nurse corps. Since her entry into the service in March 1943, she had duty at the naval hospital in Oakland and at Aiea Heights naval hospital in the Hawaiian Islands where she remained for 18 months. Last August she reported to St. Alban's hospital in New York and was detached from there on January 15. Lieut. Matteri, now on terminal leave, is the daughter of Mrs. E. Rosselli, of Lakeville.